Anthem's FNTSY Sports Network Launches on RCN Cable Across New York City

Toronto – Anthem Sports & Entertainment Corp. announced today that Fantasy Sports Network (FNTSY), the world's first and only fantasy sports television channel, has launched on RCN Cable in the New York City, making the channel available to RCN's subscribers in the Premier Digital Package and Sports Package.

FNTSY Sports Network will be available in HD (high-definition) on channel 583 and SD (standard-definition) on channel 367.

FNTSY Sports Network is the world's first and only 24/7 television network designed from the ground up to inform, engage and entertain the more than 57 million enthusiasts who play fantasy sports annually and on a daily basis. The destination channel for fantasy sports players, its programming includes exciting live studio shows, call-in shows, expert panels, celebrity and expert drafts, reality programming and on-site commentary from sports venues, as well as short-form programming from the experts around the continent, providing fantasy sports discussion and analysis for football, baseball, basketball, soccer, golf, hockey, NASCAR and other sports.

"Our penetration in the New York market is significantly boosted by our most recent launch on RCN," said Leonard Asper, CEO of Anthem Sports & Entertainment Corp. "It comes at an opportune time as football season is upon us, baseball is hot and basketball and hockey are around the corner. We look forward to meeting the demands of this passionate fantasy sports community with relevant, engaging and expert-driven content all year long."

"FNTSY Sports Network offers sports enthusiasts new viewing and information options that complement the huge variety we offer in our Premier and Sports packages," said RCN's New York City General Manager Bruce Abbott. “Fantasy sports popularity continues to grow, and this is the perfect time to offer our subscribers this programming at the start of the football season.”

FNTSY Sports Network is owned by Anthem Sports & Entertainment Corp.
