Embassy Suites San Luis Obispo reaching out in SLO County bringing the Embassy Suites Breakfast monthly to the Prado Day Center

Prado Day Center in San Luis Obispo has been helping the homeless since 1997. Each day the center provides 90 – 120 homeless men, women and children essential day-to-day services. The Embassy Suites San Luis Obispo is committed to helping the community of San Luis Obispo, specifically the Prado Day Center.

San Luis Obispo, California, September 8, 2015 — The Embassy Suites San Luis Obispo is proud to serve the community feeding the men, women and children coming through the Prado Day Center a hot Embassy Suites SLO Breakfast courtesy of Executive Chef Michael Wood the last Wednesday of each month. “Our hotel has always been a big supporter of Local Organizations and decided on the Prado because we understand the need to provide a hot breakfast for the men, women and children that go to the Prado Day Center” says General Manager, Kevin Phipps. In addition to Chef Michael, the hotel has volunteers assisting from their “Make a Difference Committee” This committee is part of the Hilton Hotels Corporation Brand Culture and consists of all departmental participation. Part of their mission is to give back to the community and to create an awareness of local organizations that need our help. Prado Day Center has provided essential day-to-day services for homeless members of our community and we felt this was a perfect opportunity to help.

In addition to meals, Prado also provides showers, laundry facilities and other vital services. The road to self-sufficiency is also aided with assistance for those seeking employment, housing referrals, social services, and enriching activities for the children. Please visit their website www.pradodaycenter.org.
