

Scribe to Sponsor and Exhibit at iPatientCare National User Conference 2015 as a Silver Sponsor

iPatientCare Welcomes Scribe On-board as a Sponsor at NUCON 2015, November 6-7, 2015.

Woodbridge, New Jersey, September 29, 2015 -- iPatientCare, Inc., a pioneer in mHealth and cloud-based ambulatory EHR, integrated Practice Management and Patient Engagement solutions, announced Scribe's participation at iPatientCare National User Conference (NUCON) 2015 as a Silver Sponsor. Scribe offers a "Cloud-based" platform with complete solutions for dictation, transcription, voice recognition, document management, healthcare information exchange, and reporting with data analytics.

Scribe bridges the gap between the file cabinet and the electronic health record by offering a secure, cloud-based clinical documentation platform that can be easily integrated with primary health information systems. Medical transcription companies benefit from Scribe's workflow and document management solutions, while Hospitals and medical practices choose Scribe's technologies and services to minimize disruption and maintain clinician productivity. EHR vendors partner with Scribe to ensure clinical document integrity and improvement.

"Scribe's partnership with iPatientCare will help physicians and their organizations improve productivity, invoice faster and increase the quality of their charting," said John Weiss, Vice President for Scribe.

"Scribe's voice-powered technology is optimized for iPatientCare's advanced architecture enabling physicians to navigate better and complete charts more efficiently. Our Virtual Scribes simplify charting even further, offering iPatientCare's users time and cost saving documentation so they can focus on patients."

"iPatientCare is glad to have Scribe as one of the Sponsors/Exhibitors at iPatientCare NUCON 2015 to highlight its secure and cloud-based platform for clinical documents that can be integrated with Electronic Health Record , Practice Management, PACS, etc." Sunil Tirthdasani – Marketing Strategist, iPatientCare.
