Why sponsor MRMW 2016

MRMW is the leading global conference series focussed on inspiration and innovation for the insights and market research industry. We work together with an advisory board comprised of international brands and thought leaders to bring together the brightest minds and the latest developments from inside and outside the industry. At MRMW you won't hear repeat stories from other events – you will hear what comes next!

Join MRMW to position your brand as innovative thought leader and a core member of the industry.

Our Team is here to help you getting the most out of your presence at MRMW. Give us a call today!

Key benefits for our partners include:

- Speaking opportunities to demonstrate thought leadership
- Exhibition space to showcase your organization and product
- Pre-event marketing through our social media channels
- Email marketing to a highly targeted member base
- Strong marketing support from our research and technology magazines
- Extended reach through our media and association partners
- Opportunity for conference give-aways, handouts and live demos
- Round the clock on site support
