WE HAVE MOVED! AS OF MONDAY, OCTOBER 5TH

MARK YOUR CALENDAR & UPDATE YOUR PHONE

After nearly 60 years in Kearny Mesa (San Diego), Hawthorne Power Systems will be moving their current facility and will be open for business in their new Rancho Bernardo facility in October. Located across the street from our corporate offices, the new address will be 16945 Camino San Bernardo, Bldg. D, San Diego, CA 92127. Also note the new number is 858.376.6800.

The new facility has 14 service bays to better serve customers as well as upgraded office space for our sales, service and rental business segments. We are also breaking ground on a new, state of the art engine, generator and on-highway truck testing facility. Capabilities include engine flywheel dynamometer testing up to 4,250 horsepower, indoor generator resistive/reactive load bank testing up to 3,300 KW, outdoor generator testing up to 8,000 horsepower (6MW), and truck chassis dynamometer testing of up to 1,000 horsepower.
