

GLOBAL MISSIONARY WORK AT A GLANCE

Salesian Missions is headquartered in New Rochelle, New York, and is part of the Don Bosco Network — a worldwide federation of Salesian NGOs. The mission of the U.S.-based nonprofit organization is to provide support and raise funds to assist needy youth and families through programs carried out by Salesian missionaries. Millions of youth facing adversity have received services specifically funded by Salesian Missions and its donors. Funds are also raised to assist with humanitarian emergencies caused by natural disasters, wars and violence. This annual report provides information on some of the projects which received support from Salesian Missions in 2014.

Nearly 30,000 missionaries (priests, brothers and sisters) worldwide are living and working within the communities they serve.

Salesians know the political and social climate and are able to build strategic partnerships with governments and non-governmental organizations.

Salesians live within the communities so they know the local needs better than outside groups.

Salesians are able to quickly respond to emergencies and provide urgent humanitarian assistance efficiently.
