San Antonio Aquarium Needs Coats, Sweaters, Blankets for Abused, Abandoned and Neglected Kids

San Antonio Aquarium, in conjunction with the Law Office of Rudy Castillo, is collecting coats, sweaters and blankets to benefit children affected by abuse, abandonment and neglect. 100% of all donations will benefit local children at the The Children's Shelter in San Antonio.

San Antonio Aquarium, in conjunction with the Law Office of Rudy Castillo is collecting coats, sweaters and blankets to benefit children affected by abuse, abandonment and neglect. 100% of all donations will benefit children at the The Children's Shelter in San Antonio.

New or slightly used coats, sweaters or blankets are being collected at the San Antonio Aquarium, 6320 Bandera Rd., now thru November 22nd. For each donated item, donors will receive one free admission to the aquarium to enjoy over 50,000 sq ft filled with thousands of species of animals.

Close to 700,000 people have enjoyed a visit to San Antonio Aquarium this year. Interactivity is the key to fun at the aquarium with feeding opportunities for stingrays, sharks, tortoises, iguanas, parakeets, lorikeets and caiman crocodiles. With over thirty exhibits, dozens them touchable, San Antonio Aquarium invites families of Greater San Antonio to come and discover, explore and connect with the animals.

Memberships 50% Off

Memberships are more valuable than ever before. For the remainder of 2015, annual memberships are 50% off and include exclusive member only access to upcoming expansions before the general public has full access. A membership to San Antonio Aquarium also includes membership access to San Antonio Aquarium. Visit the membership page at sanantoniaquarium.net for details.
