

Talking Points

Children's Miracle Network Hospitals

- Children's Miracle Network Hospitals is a charity that raises funds and awareness for 170 children's hospitals across the U.S. and Canada.
 - Children's hospitals rely on community donations to provide crucial services.
 - Donations stay local for hospitals to use them however they're needed most — typically for critical treatments and services, medical equipment, research and charitable care.
 - U.S. member hospitals provide $3.4 billion in charitable care annually.

Champions

- Children's Miracle Network Hospitals selects a pediatric patient from every state, Washington, D.C. and Puerto Rico, to serve as a "Champion" ambassador to advocate for the charitable needs of children's hospitals.
- The Champions represent the 10 million kids treated at Children's Miracle Network Hospitals every year.

Champions Ambassador Tour

- Champions visit Atlanta and Washington, D.C. in June 2015, and Orlando, Fla. in Feb. 2016, to share:
 - their inspiring stories
 - the important work going on at children's hospitals
 - the need for community support
