Belvoir Federal Wins One of Three CU Awards for Mortgage Production

Woodbridge, VA, February 9, 2016 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union was presented with The Platinum Award for exceeding $20,000,000 in 2015's mortgage loan production from Credit Union Mortgage Association, Inc.

Belvoir Federal was one of three credit union partners of Credit Union Mortgage Association, Inc. to receive a top producer award for 2015 loan closings. Credit Union Mortgage Association, Inc. has sixty-five total credit union partners, which they work with to assist credit unions and members with the mortgage lending process nationally.

“Belvoir Federal is honored to receive this award, especially during the economic challenges of last year. We are proud of our products and continually strive to deliver exceptional services to our members,” stated Tisha Wallace, Chief Operations Officer at Belvoir Federal Credit Union.

Sean Connell, CU Coordinator at Credit Union Mortgage Association, Inc., stated, “Thank you to Belvoir Federal for being an outstanding partner. Your organization is one of three to receive this award, which doesn't come easily, especially in today's economy. It is throughout these types of relationships that we are able to better serve credit union members with superior service and products.”

When consumers are considering purchasing a home, a great option to consider is a trusted financial advisor, such as their credit union. With rates being historically low, it is a great time to buy or refinance.
