

Morf Playbook™ Presents

Corrective and Preventive Action for FDA Regulated Companies from Morf Media, USA.

NOW ON MOBILE DEVICES

A better CAPA should be developed to solve problems within the system, facility and operation rather than focusing on the remediation of individuals.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

This course will equip you with a clear and effective approach to correcting and preventing operational problems, customer issues, and other non-conformities that can negatively affect your company.

This course helps managers relate CAPA with Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) and focuses on the systematic investigation of discrepancies within operations in an attempt to prevent recurrence.

AREAS COVERED

- A primer on why human error is the automatic designation behind deviations and discrepancies
- How to determine the real root cause of ineffective CAPAs
- Specialized information on the real cause of ineffective processes
- How to successfully discover the true causes and contributing factors of system problems
- How to formulate a better CAPA to address true problems
