Assured Edge Solutions Re-signs Agreement with Marshall Ingredients to Facilitate Sales into New and Emerging Markets.

Assured Edge Solutions LLC (AES) announced today that the company has re-signed their agreement with Marshall Ingredients to serve as Manufacturers Representative in the United States and Europe. The Wolcott NY based Marshall Ingredients is a quality food ingredients manufacturer and distributor, specializing in all-natural dried fruit and vegetable products such as dried apple powder, dried blueberry powder, and dried cranberry powder.

"The agreement embodies our commitment to provide sustainable, healthy, and functional ingredients to our customers who will utilize them to add all natural nutrients and flavors to foods and beverages. Marshall Ingredients' product line is a game changer across several markets, including Cereal Bars, Smoothies, and Baked Goods, and AES is very pleased to represent Marshall Ingredients in North America and Europe." stated Daniel Rao, President of Assured Edge Solutions.

Casey Koehnlein, General Manager of Marshall Ingredients, stated, "AES has the skills and expertise to continue expanding Marshalls products and toll services to both the North American and European marketplaces. We chose to re-sign AES as they continually prove to understand their client requirements, they know how to properly position our products as solutions, and we look forward to working with them for many years to come."
