

LETTER OF INTRODUCTION

Dear Reader —

It is my pleasure to provide this brief press kit to introduce you to SuiteStory. Let me take this opportunity to introduce myself, Vikram Pradhan, an experienced hotel revenue strategist and the Co-founder/President of SuiteStory. My partner Dmitrii Beliakov is a serial entrepreneur and is serves as SuiteStory's Co-founder/CEO.

We created SuiteStory – where we sell hotel suites only – to give consumers access to the world's best suites and unpublished promotions. SuiteStory just launched in London, New York, Paris, and Hawaii with many other cities planned this year. Powered by high quality content and a machine learning algorithm, SuiteStory will curate a bespoke booking experience for savvy travelers looking for the next level of experience from their hotel stays than just standard rooms.

Items enclosed within this press kit include a brief bio of the company and its founders, our mission statement, and the recently published press release of our launch.

We will be more than happy to make ourselves available for any information, follow-up interviews or question-answer sessions.

Best Regards,

Vikram Pradhan

Co-founder/President, SuiteStory
