

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact Information:

Simon Tisminesky
Co-President, Cambridge Automotive Group
simon@cfgauto.com

PABLO CLARKE TO JOIN GARNETT STATION PARTNERS AS GENERAL COUNSEL

MEMPHIS, TN (April 21, 2016) Garnett Station Partners (GSP), an investment firm focused on retail and consumer businesses, today announced that Pablo Clarke has joined as General Counsel. Prior to joining Garnett Station, Clarke worked spent eight years working as a finance attorney. His most-recent position was with Latham & Watkins LLP. Clarke received his B.A. from Princeton University, a J.D. from University of Arizona and an M.B.A from University of California, Berkeley.

As General Counsel, Clarke will oversee the legal matters of GSP and its affiliates, including acquisitions, real estate and financing.

"We are excited to welcome Pablo to our leadership team," said Matt Perelman, Managing Partner and co-Founder of Garnett Station. "We continue to selectively add talented, experienced team members who will enable us to grow.

"Pablo's legal and business experience will benefit our efforts and allow us to take advantage of the many opportunities we see ahead," added Alex Sloane, Managing Partner and co-Founder.

About Garnett Station Partners:

Garnett Station Partners (GSP) is an investment firm focused on retail and consumer businesses. The firm aims to build and grow enduring companies. GSP's affiliates include Cambridge Franchise Holdings and Cambridge Automotive Group. Cambridge Franchise Holdings is a Burger King franchise group with restaurants and associated real estate in North Carolina, Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Tennessee. Cambridge Automotive Group is the largest Maaco franchise group in North America with growth targeted in California, Texas, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah and Washington. For more information, visit GarnettStation.com.