Michael Savoy to be Honored by National Jewish Health and Los Angeles Professional Services

Santa Monica, CA —April 26, 2016—Michael Savoy, CPA, CGMA, a senior shareholder at Santa Monica based accounting firm Gumbiner Savett Inc., is being honored with the Humanitarian Award at the National Jewish Health and Los Angeles Professional Services Black and White Ball to be held on June 4, at the Skirball Cultural Center, in West Los Angeles.

The Humanitarian Award recognizes an honoree who has contributed greatly, both through civic and charitable benefaction, and who is a distinguished leader in their field. “I am very excited and proud that Michael is receiving this incredible honor” stated Valerie Colin, a shareholder at Gumbiner Savett Inc., “I have known Michael for almost 40 years and he embodies all of the qualities that this award salutes.” This honor follows Savoy’s many years of continued leadership in the accounting profession, and his dedication to the community. Savoy has demonstrated his commitment to the community through his work with numerous charitable organizations. Savoy is a former board member of a privately held, not-for-profit, day school in Northridge and served as treasurer of the school for 6 years.

Aside from his charitable endeavors, Savoy has proven himself as a dedicated leader in the accounting and business field time and time again. He is a past president and is currently on the board of the California Board of Accountancy. Savoy also serves on the board of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce as their Treasurer. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the California Society of Certified Public Accountants (CalCPA), and the Employee Stock Ownership Plan Association.
