

Henry's Book Club

How is Henry different from his friends and family?

What is your favorite thing about Henry that makes him different?

How are you different from your friends and family?

What is your favorite thing about you that makes you different?

Henry feels lonely and sad when his classmates make fun of him.

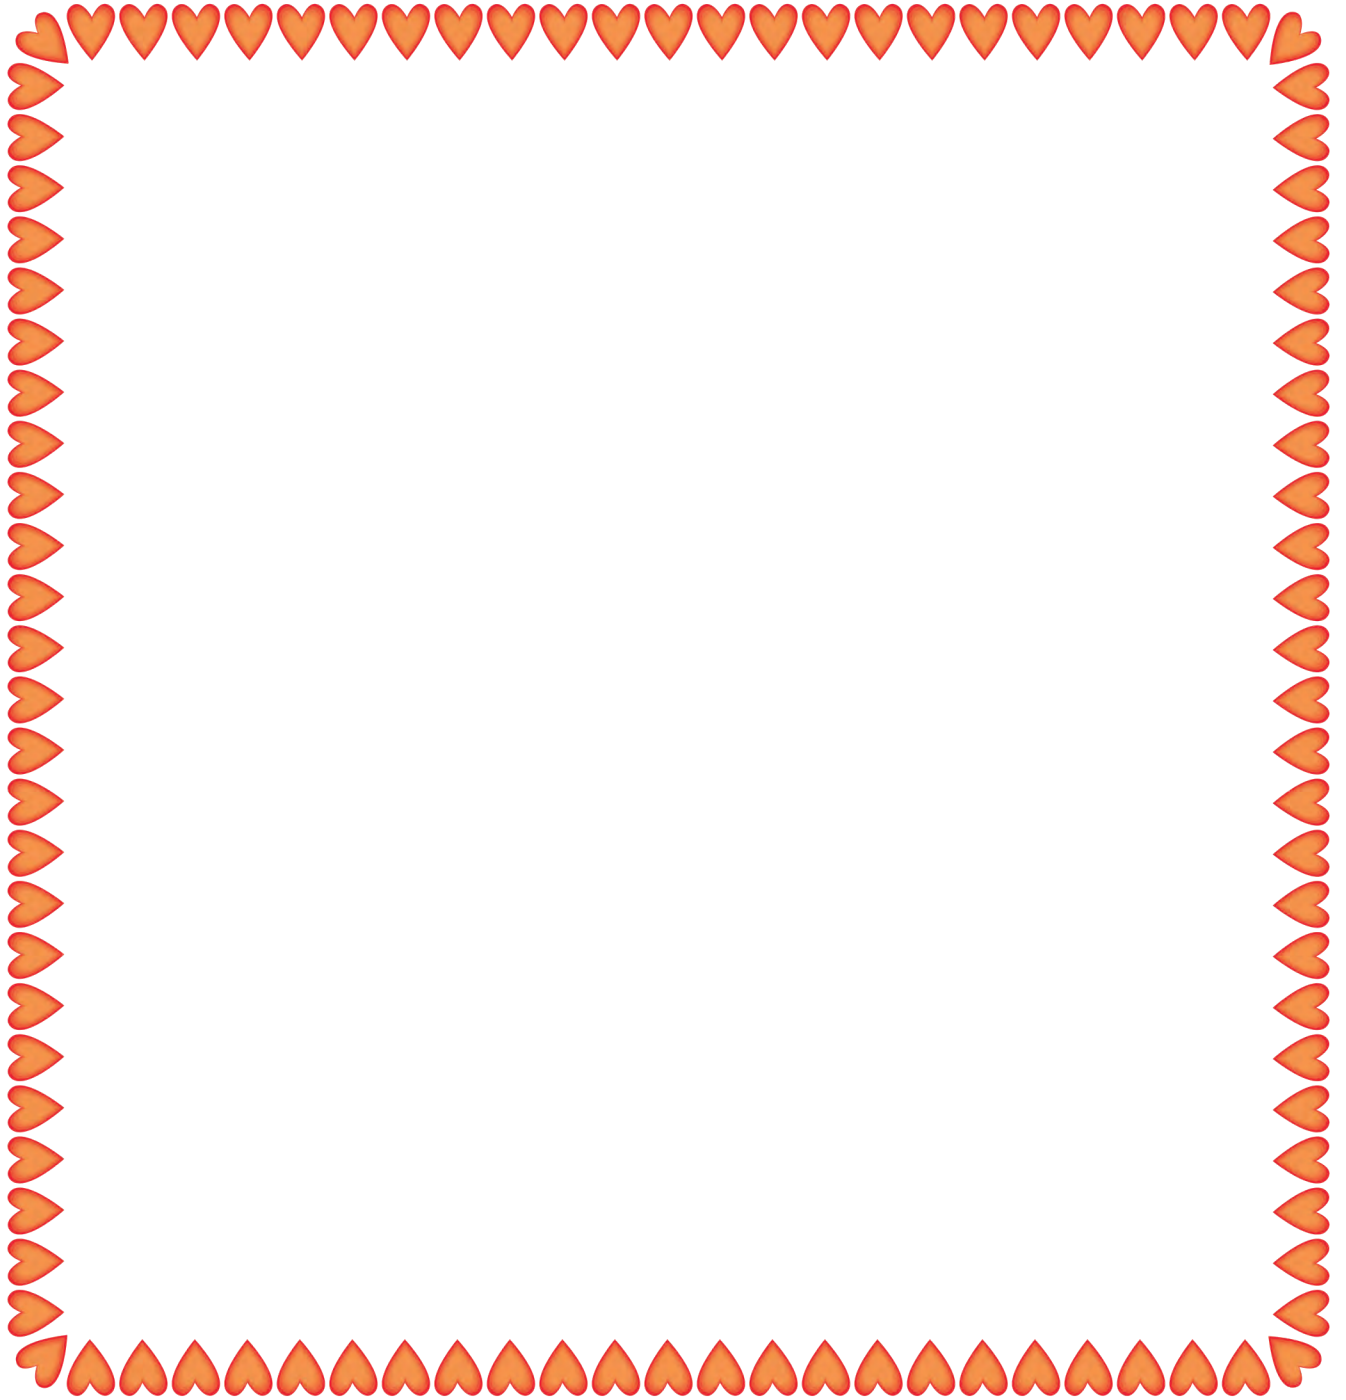

- Have you ever been mean to others because they are different?
- Have others ever been mean to you because you are different?

Henry knows he can talk to his parents and teachers when he feels sad.

- Who can you talk to when you feel sad?

What are some of Henry's superpower words? Can you think of some new superpower words?

Draw a picture of YOU on the next page, and see how special you are!

I am super special!