

A plein air paint-out in Union Square

Jerry's Artarama International Palette Shop celebrates two year anniversary by hosting first-ever plein air painting event.

Jerry's Artarama International Palette Shop (<http://www.jerryspaletteshop.com/>) located at 111 Fourth Avenue, New York will celebrate its second anniversary by hosting a plein air get-together with New-York based artist Casey Baugh in Union Square Park on Sunday, June 5 from 3:00pm - 8:00pm EDT.

"Bring your paint and sketchbooks and meet up with us in the park for our first ever plein air event!" said Heather Goldstein, manager of the New York City-based Jerry's International Palette Shop. "We're looking forward to painting alongside New York's artistic community as well as professional artist Casey Baugh."

Baugh, who specializes in oil paint and charcoal, has been featured on the covers of many publications and teaches workshops across the country.

To go along with this plein air celebration, Jerry's will be offering the first 100 participants a Jerry's swag bag full of art merchandise, as well as free raffle tickets for other great prizes that will be awarded throughout the evening. Attendees are encouraged to check-in at the Jerry's Artarama International Palette Shop table upon arrival to secure their gift bag, raffle tickets and other prizes.

For more information on the event, contact Heather Goldstein, Jerry's International Palette Shop at +1 (646) 678 – 5474.
