FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pacor, Inc. Proudly Names their New Director of Sales

Pacor, Inc., an authorized OEM Fabricating Partner for Aspen Aerogels and a Johns Manville Select Master Fabricator, is proud to announce that Todd Hudson has joined the company as their new Director of Sales

Bordentown, NJ (PRWeb) June 27, 2016 – Pacor, Inc., (<http://www.pacorinc.com>) a leading fabricator of thermal and acoustical insulation solutions for OEM and Industrial Applications, is proud to announce that Todd Hudson has joined Pacor as their new Director of Sales.

Todd is an accomplished Sales and Marketing Leader with more than 15 years of experience driving sales growth, market analysis, and operations within manufacturing and distribution environments. He has overseen a wide range of sales, marketing and product development teams.

Todd's main priority will be expanding the sales team at Pacor, Inc. as the company continues to focus on market penetration and growth.

Over the years, Pacor has seen the applications for their innovative industrial insulation products continue to increase in industries including Appliances, HVAC, Transportation, Power Generation, and Commercial Food Equipment. Pacor remains committed to assisting those and other industries with the necessary resources and products to solve the most complex insulation problems.

"Todd's background in sales team development and business development will enable us to reach more customers with innovative insulation solutions. This will be a great asset to Pacor," said Ronald Latini, President and CEO.
