

A Recruitment Process that's 100% Digital

Strato with AdobeSign and DocuSign integration significantly cuts recruitment time, effort and costs by shortening four key recruitment steps to just a few clicks.

With Strato, Recruiters can easily send recruitment documents such as Job Requisitions, Job Offer Letters, Employment Contracts, and more for digital signing. The Hiring Manager, Department Head or the Recruitment Manager can digitally sign a document first before it is sent to the candidate.

Candidates can also sign the document and automatically forward it back to the recruiter thus completing the recruitment process.
