

Sikhism; Faith, Food and Fun

Interfaith/Multicultural (I AM) Sunday Evening service

We are honored to partner with the Colorado Sikh Community for an authentic Sikh Service.

- The very first full Sikh service within church walls in North America
- Free and delicious Indian meal (Langar) following the service

Sikhs have a spiritual and historic tradition of selfless service; they serve 6.5 million free Langar meals every day around the world.

Hosted by Mile Hi Church, a Center for Spiritual Living

5:30 p.m., Sept. 4, Sanctuary

Followed by the Langar (free traditional Sikh meal)
in the Community Center

9077 W. Alameda Ave., Lakewood, CO
(Corner of Alameda and Garrison)

Child care available

In honoring the sacred Sikh service, we will be removing our shoes and covering our heads.

Women - bring your favorite lightweight scarf (or one will be provided)
Men - head covers will be provided

Next Interfaith/Multicultural (I AM) Sunday
Evening Service is 5:30 p.m., Nov. 6
