

PIONEER TECHNOLOGY GROUP HIRES NEW MIDWEST BUSINESS MANAGER

Pioneer Technology Group hires James Fox to help the Company provide a deeper level of service to the Midwest.

Pioneer Technology Group announced today the hiring of James Fox as its Midwest Business Manager. Mr. Fox came to the company with an extensive background in court technology and business development. "We are very happy to have James join our business development team in Ohio," said Chris Stewart, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Pioneer Technology Group. "It isn't easy to find people who will fit into our philosophy of hard work and excellence in customer support but I have confidence in saying that James is going to fit in very well," Mr. Stewart continued.

Ryan Crowley, Vice President of Sales and Marketing said, "Providing the level of service and products that our customers have come to expect requires specific focus and local knowledge. When we heard that Mr. Fox was looking for a new opportunity we jumped at the chance to make him a Pioneer. Pioneer's Midwest expansion is just beginning and James will be a key asset in that process."

James Fox is a South Lake Tahoe, CA native currently residing in Wooster, OH. James graduated from the University of Nevada in Reno where he studied Criminal Justice. Always having had a passion for education, James continued on to earn his Master's Degree from the University of Missouri in St Louis. James has worked as a Court Administrator for the Wayne County Common Pleas Court for nearly 6 years and has earned a reputation as a knowledgeable resource in the government realm. In his spare time James enjoys coaching little league soccer and spending time with his wife and three beautiful children.

"Mr. Fox's experience in Wayne County will aid him greatly in growing Pioneer," said Kevin Koon-Koon, Vice President of Operations. "His academic spirit and fun, laid back style make him just the type of individual needed to achieve success here," Mr. Koon-Koon continued.

Pioneer Technology Group has been expanding its footprint in Ohio for the last 3 years. Pioneer currently provides Benchmark, a court case management software, to 12 courts in Ohio with several others coming soon. Landmark is helping two Ohio County Recorders manage their recording process. Pioneer's scanning service bureau has helped Counties and private sector businesses move away from paper files to a more paperless workflow. Finally, Jurymark, Pioneer's latest addition to the product suite, is helping Ohio Clerks streamline the Jury process.
