Bonded Logistics Announces New Hires at Warehousing Facilities

New hires fill vacated roles across multiple locations for the Charlotte-based 3PL

CHARLOTTE, NC (September 27, 2016) – Bonded Logistics, a privately-owned global third-party logistics (3PL) provider, announced today the hiring of Scott Grendahl to General Manager and Holly Allred to Department Manager at its 7320 Statesville Road location, and Holly White to Department Manager at its 5130 Hovis Road location.

Grendahl brings over 30 years of experience in distribution management and transportation to Bonded Logistics. Most recently, he worked as Building and Transportation Manager for Rite Aid, and prior to that held operations and distribution positions with Brooks and Eckerd. Grendahl assumes the role of General Manager at 7320 and will oversee customer relationships, productivity, quality, safety, and continuous improvement. He will report to Jeff Jaeger, Vice President of Operations at Bonded Logistics.

“We are very excited to have Scott join our team,” stated Jaeger. “Our 7320 location is one of our busiest and serves as a distribution center for several clients. Scott brings over 30 years of increasing responsibility in warehousing and operations in managing large-scale facilities. He has a great demeanor and relates well to customers and employees.”

Allred also joins Bonded Logistics from Rite Aid, where she spent the last 20 years as Department Manager in several areas including inbound and replenishment, pharmacy, transportation, and returns. Allred assumes the role of Department Manager at 7320 and will be responsible for a variety of facility departments including shipping and receiving. She will report to Jonathan Childers, Facility Manager.

White joins Bonded Logistics from Rite Aid as well, where she spent the last two years as Department Manager working in shipping and returns. White assumes the role of Department Manager at 5130 and will oversee areas such as order picking, shipping, and receiving. She will report to Jose Davila, Facility Manager at 5130.

“Our experienced employees are what make the difference for us in this business,” said Scott Carr, President of Bonded Logistics. “We do everything we can to offer best-in-class services for our clients, and employees like Scott and both Holly’s will continue to help us do that. We’re proud to have them onboard at Bonded.”
