Yusen Logistics Earns Quest for Quality Award from Logistics Management Magazine

Secaucus, NJ: Yusen Logistics (Americas) Inc. has been recognized as one of the industry's top third-party logistics providers in Logistics Management Magazine's 2016 Quest for Quality Awards survey.

Yusen Logistics was named a leader in the Transportation Management Solutions category. This acknowledgement marks the fifth consecutive year that the company has received recognition overall.

"The Quest for Quality Awards is the gold standard for customer satisfaction and we want to thank our customers for their continued support," said Brian Paolillo, Senior Vice President, Transportation. "We are honored to be recognized as a top provider in the TMS category. This achievement was made possible by our dedicated team members, who provide superior service and value to our customers every day."

Paolillo accepted the award at the Quest for Quality Gala that was held in Orlando, FL last month.

Logistics Management has published the Quest for Quality Awards since 1983. This year, 4,725 logistics and supply chain decision makers placed their vote. Respondents rated providers strictly on the basis of service quality.
