

2017-2018 CETUSA Outbound Scholarships

CETUSA is proud to announce that we will be offering three study abroad scholarships for the 2017-2018 academic year. These scholarships are:

The Founder's Scholarship

Named in honor of Rick Anaya and Terry Watson who started CETUSA after acquiring Dr. Frank Sprachen & Reisen (DFSR). DFSR is now one of our most trusted partners.

This scholarship will be for a student studying in Germany for the 2017-2018 academic year.

The Bon Voyage Scholarship

This scholarship will be for a student studying in France for the 2017-2018 academic year.

The Discover Scandinavia Scholarship

This scholarship will be for a student studying in Sweden for the 2017-2018 academic year.

These scholarships will pay for the program fees for a full year of study in the country. The fees include:

- Public high school acceptance
- Volunteer host family placement
- Visa support documents
- Pre-departure orientation
- Local orientation upon arrival
- Monitoring and supervision by local partner
- 24-hour emergency support

Not covered in the scholarship are:

- International airfare
- Medical/travel insurance
- Domestic transportation to host family and within the country
- School textbooks and lunches
- Extracurricular expenses for clubs, sports, etc.
- Passport/visa/resident card fees
- Personal spending money

The total value of these scholarships is $7,600 for Germany, $7,700 for France, and $7,500 for Sweden.

Applying for a Scholarship

In order to receive a scholarship, you will need to be accepted into the program first. Therefore we require that you:

- Either complete a pre-application on Google Forms (<https://goo.gl/forms/ozCSrzHCYLNOXO2I2>), fill out a contact form on <http://www.cetusa.org/study-abroad/>, or email studyabroad@cetusa.org. Indicate that you are interested in a scholarship.
- Complete the application for your country of interest. This can be quite a lengthy process, and we will help you if needed.
- Go through a personal interview with us in-person or via Skype. This is a way for us to get to know you better and understand your motivations.

In addition, we require for the scholarship:

- Three completed essay questions. Each response should be no longer than 500 words.
 - Why do you want to study abroad?
 - Where do you see yourself in 5 years?
 - Who is the most influential person in your decision to study abroad?
- One academic letter of recommendation
- One letter of personal recommendation
- Letter of parental support for student participation in the program

The deadline to submit a scholarship application (all steps fully completed) is:

February 1st, 2017

After all entries have been submitted, a scholarship committee will meet and choose the winner for each scholarship. The winners will be announced around mid-March.

Good luck to all those who apply!
