Sonwil Distribution Center Opens Facility in Arlington, Texas

Logistics and transportation provider establishes Southwestern U.S. operations hub

Arlington, TX (October 21, 2016) – Sonwil Distribution Center today announced that it has opened a new operation on Pioneer Parkway in Arlington, Texas. Sonwil is a third generation family-owned and operated logistics solutions firm which has been serving regional, national, and international clients for more than 70 years.

“As a growing business making its first introduction into the Southwestern market, we couldn’t be more excited to settle into one of the most dynamic economic regions in the country,” said Peter Wilson, president and CEO of Sonwil Distribution Center. “Our company is proud to hold many long-standing, trusted partnerships with some of the world’s largest manufacturers across various industry verticals, and we look forward to fully servicing both the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex and wider five state region.”

Sonwil’s Arlington location will include parking for more than 150 employees, a cross-dock facility, Secure Drop Trailer Lot, more than 30 overhead dock doors, and 7 rail doors. It will be BRC and FDA Food Grade/FDA (2011 FSMA Act) certified. The facility will house a 229,400 square foot warehouse with ambient storage, rail-served via Union Pacific, North America’s premier railroad franchise, office space, a break and restroom area. “DFW is an extremely strategic location for our operations,” continued Wilson. “Our initial focus will be to establish this facility as our Southwestern U.S. operational hub—migrating a large, existing client to the Arlington location in order to accommodate a new distribution strategy and service their regional warehousing and distribution needs. With additional capacity available, we’ll be expanding our service offerings to other companies operating, or planning to operate, in and around the region.”

Sonwil is nationally headquartered in Buffalo, New York, with additional locations in Elmira, New York; Carlstadt, New Jersey; and Reno, Nevada.

The company provides reliable services that free customers from operating expenses and management issues related to private facility ownership. Sonwil’s scalable logistics solutions help clients optimize revenue growth and reduce their operating expenses related to the management and distribution of their inventory by offering logistics to power distribution, technology to increase competitive edge, transportation to optimize the movement of freight, and commercial space to grow your business.
