

People Background Check Website Launches with Detailed New Reports and National Public Records

Background Reports that Include Criminal and Public Records are Now Available on Nearly Every Person in the Country

People Background Check is a new website that delivers fast, affordable access to detailed personal background check reports. The site combines public records on more than 94% of the 320 million people in the United States today with proprietary data sources to form a single consolidated view into anyone's personal history.

People-Background-Check.com improves public access to state and national records. There are many people search websites, but none of them offers the depth of free information available on the personal profile pages of People Background Check. These profile pages are historical records of individual people that combine with their latest online mentions, social media accounts and references to create a living profile of each person in the country. The individual profiles include phone numbers, addresses and social media mentions, while detailed background reports give people the tools to find, research and know their neighbors, verify online dating profiles, find old friends and classmates and other people in their lives and communities.

The high-volume data aggregation system powering the new website processes more than 25 billion records annually. Users get access to more than 300 online and proprietary data sources with reports that contain more than 40 possible data points dating back to 1940 and updated daily. No membership is required for access and users pay only for what they need.

Millions of people search for background information about other people each month. The People Background Check website and allows people to know the personal history of every person that comes into contact with them and their family. These reports include criminal history, civil judgments like liens, bankruptcies, and marriage and divorces records, plus address history, relative names, age, date of birth and email addresses whenever the records exist and are publically available.

Look for someone you know today to find them instantly – where have they lived, where do they work, were they ever arrested – and get ready to learn more than you ever thought they would tell you.
