2017 OTIS REPORT ON THE CREATIVE ECONOMY TO BE RELEASED ON MAY 18

LOS ANGELES, CA – Otis College of Art and Design is pleased to present the 2017 Otis Report on the Creative Economy of the State of California and the Los Angeles Region at the Linwood Dunn Theater in Hollywood on May 18, 2017 at 10am.

The program will include an introduction by Cheryl Boone Isaacs, President of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, a panel discussion led by economist Kimberly Ritter-Martinez with Academy members Victoria Alonso and Debra Martin Chase on the creative economy and the entertainment industry, and a reporting of key findings from the California and Los Angeles reports.

Otis College of Art and Design has commissioned the Los Angeles County Economic Development Corporation (LAEDC) to generate the Annual Report on the Creative Economy of the Los Angeles Region (Otis Report) since 2007. Now in its fourth year, the Otis Report on the Creative Economy of California features an expansion highlighting local creative industries via eight regional snapshots, developed with support from the California Arts Council. The regions include the Bay Area, Capital Region, Central Coast, Central Valley, Inland Empire, San Diego and the Imperial Valley, Southern California, and Upstate California.
