LEHI, UT, JUNE 8, 2017 — BodyGuardz®, a leading mobile device protection innovator, announced the immediate availability of BodyGuardz Pure® tempered glass screen protectors for the new Apple iPad Pro lineup.

Engineered to achieve maximum strength and performance with a thin sheet of .4mm glass, BodyGuardz Pure delivers superior drop protection, as well as stands up to daily scuffs and scratches. Practically invisible, Pure is the absolute best glass screen protection available for both new iPad Pro models.

"Apple never ceases to deliver the best products with each launch; and we see it as our responsibility and mission to keep those devices safe and beautiful," said Ryan Noel, BodyGuardz' senior brand manager. "BodyGuardz Pure glass is the perfect companion for the 10.5-inch and 12.9-inch iPad Pro models because, while extremely thin, Pure delivers incredibly meaningful protection from shattered screens."
