Gym Source Hires New Vice President of Operations

Company dedicated to developing proactive solutions supporting anticipated growth

New York, NY [June 14, 2017] - Gym Source, America's leading distributor of premium residential and commercial fitness equipment announces that Ed Kurzontkowski has joined the Company as Vice President of Operations. Kurzontkowski will oversee service, logistics and purchasing as well as facility management which currently includes 36 retail stores and 7 warehouses with additional facilities planned.

Prior to joining Gym Source, Kurzontkowski spent twenty-eight years with Cybex International, where he held a variety of positions. In addition to managing engineering and product development, as Senior Vice President of Manufacturing, he built the top service organization in fitness manufacturing.

"It is an exciting time to be a part of Gym Source. Fitness equipment is a purchase that customers want to touch and feel before making a buying decision. Having retail outlets that serve both retail and commercial customers is a huge advantage," Kurzontkowski said. "My focus will be to make sure that we are not just about the sale – but everything that comes before and after it - including installation and service."

"Adding somebody as talented as Ed Kurzontkowski to our Gym Source team is a big step forward in continuing to offer the best customer experience in fitness equipment distribution," said Art Hicks, Gym Source CEO. "Ed knows how to build a strong team and understands the culture of excellence which is critical to our success."
