CHROMALOX NAMED A WINNER OF THE PITTSBURGH AREA 2017 TOP WORKPLACES

PITTSBURGH, PA, USA – August 29, 2017 – Chromalox, Inc., the leader in advanced thermal technologies, has been awarded a 2017 Top Workplaces honor by The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. The Top Workplaces lists are based solely on the results of an employee feedback survey administered by WorkplaceDynamics, LLC, a leading research firm that specializes in organizational health and workplace improvement. Several aspects of workplace culture were measured, including Alignment, Execution, and Connection, just to name a few.

“The Top Workplaces award is not a popularity contest. And oftentimes, people assume it’s all about fancy perks and benefits.” says Doug Claffey, CEO of WorkplaceDynamics. “But to be a Top Workplace, organizations must meet our strict standards for organizational health. And who better to ask about work life than the people who live the culture every day—the employees. Time and time again, our research proved that what’s most important to them is a strong belief in where the organization is headed, how it’s going to get there, and the feeling that everyone is in it together. Claffey adds, “Without this sense of connection, an organization doesn’t have a shot at being named a Top Workplace.”

Chromalox made the list for the 1st time in Pittsburgh, PA when the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette announced the winners on August 20th.

Chromalox employs approximately 1,100 employees across a footprint of sales, engineering, and manufacturing globally. Our employees are our greatest asset. Many are thought leaders; the “go-to” people in their field of expertise. They are trusted sources who lead with innovative ideas, develop ideas into reality, and use those ideas to create sustainable solutions that focus on changing the world of industrial heating.

“A special thank you to all Pittsburgh Chromalox employees who made this award possible,” stated Leslie Quealy, Vice President of Human Resources. “This recognition is especially significant as we celebrate our 100 year anniversary.” Chromalox will continue to be true to its history as it continues to build its global brand into the next century.
