The Griffith Foundation Names David L. Kaufman
Winner of the 2017 Lifetime Achievement Award

MALVERN, Pa.—David L. Kaufman, ACAS, MAAA, received The Institutes Griffith Insurance Education Foundation's 2017 Lifetime Achievement Award during a ceremony at the National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies (NAMIC) Annual Convention on September 25 in Denver, Colorado.

Candidates for the 2017 Griffith Foundation Lifetime Achievement Award were selected by The Griffith Foundation Leadership Council, which includes insurance leaders, executives and academics. Winners are recognized for their commitment to education and support of the missions of The Griffith Foundation and NAMIC.

Kaufman is CEO of Motorists Insurance Group and BrickStreet Mutual Insurance, as well as board director for each property-casualty, life insurance, workers' compensation and insurance brokerage companies within the Group. Since joining Motorists in 1986, he has steadily ascended through a series of leadership roles with increasing levels of responsibility.

In addition, Kaufman holds industry-related board positions with the American Association of Insurance Services, Insurance Industry Resource Council (IIRC), NAMIC Property and Casualty Conference (PCC), Ohio Insurance Institute, Property Casualty Insurers Association of America, and TrustedChoice.com, as well as with The Griffith Foundation. He also holds leadership roles as co-chair of the IIRC, vice chair of OII and chairman of PCC.
