We are pleased to welcome back San Francisco attorney Steven Adair MacDonald to our Real Estate Roundtable to update us on our city's complex and confounding rent and eviction control law.

Mr. MacDonald's firm has represented both commercial and residential landlords and tenants for over 35 years. He has settled tenant suits for over one million dollars and tries cases in our courts when they cannot be mediated successfully. He will offer insight into some of the dysfunction rent control creates and make recommendations toward navigating some of the worst effects of it. Please come prepared with questions.

A native of New York, Mr. MacDonald attended Fordham University before his military service. He finished his
