PRESS RELEASE

Elizabeth, NJ opens its doors to the public for a sampling of its diverse cultural cuisine on October 16th for the 11th Annual Taste of Elizabeth.

Come, take your taste buds on an adventure in Elizabeth, NJ~! Want to travel the globe? ...no passport needed. With restaurants that feature menus from across the world, Elizabeth is a destination for foodies of all types. Its local dining venues not only provide great ethnic cuisine, they offer fantastic cultural experiences.

Elizabeth, N.J. - October 12, 2016

On Monday, October 16th the 11th Annual Taste of Elizabeth, will be showcasing its diverse desiccant aromas and rich savoring flavors of more than 40 restaurants, bakeries and beverage vendors. Their selections will all be available to the public from 5PM to 8:30PM at the Renaissance Hotel, 1000 Spring Street, Elizabeth for the one low price of $35.

The Rotary Club of Elizabeth, celebrating its 100th year of service to the Greater Elizabeth Community, organizes the event. They are proud to feature a unique food-tasting event where they gather under one roof, the lively, multi-cultural community representing Elizabeth's diverse culinary choices!

Explained Doug Harris, Chairman of this year's Taste of Elizabeth, "Each year, the Taste combines the Greater Elizabeth area's newest and most exciting restaurants, together with many popular traditional eateries. To have so many tempting selections all in one location, on one night, is truly outstanding." He added, "The best part is the fact that all profits from the event are given to area charities by the Rotary Club of Elizabeth."

This year's vendors include: Alvarez Café, Elizabeth; BarCode, Elizabeth; Bayway Liquors, Elizabeth; Beach Haus Beer, Belmar; CATB Liquor Imports, Paterson; Charles Jacquin Cie, Inc., Garwood; Circle Barbeque Café, Elizabeth; Come Grow With Us Gardens, Elizabeth; Climax Brewing Co, Roselle Park; Don Felix Bar & Restaurant, Elizabeth; Thomas A.
