

Bonsoni.com Launches Two New Handmade Industrial Furniture Range Ahead of Christmas.

Bonsoni.com launched two new ranges of Industrial furniture ahead of Christmas this month. This will allow Bonsoni's growing customer base to have more choices when they look for the Industrial Furniture to decorate their homes by following new design trends.

Like other ranges, the new ranges will also qualify for free delivery to Mainland UK, as well as delivering to Non-Mainland areas like Northern Ireland, Scottish Highlands, Isle of Man, Channel Islands for an extra fee. International delivery also available on request.

The new Industrial Ranges are "Bonsoni Cayman Zinc" and "Bonsoni Sandy Baudouin". Both ranges are addition to Bonsoni.com's extremely popular Baudouin range.

The Cayman Zinc range furniture are solidly constructed and fully assembled. Handmade from solid acacia hardwood, with studded zinc shelves giving a cool industrial feel. The beautifully made hardwood frame offers structural rigidity and contrasts fantastically with the zinc.

The Sandy Baudouin, just an upgraded version of the immensely popular Baudouin range. This new edition comes features vibrant colour and rustic character, offering echoes of coastal living. Some of the wood used can range between 50 and 150 years old and is assembled by skilled craftsmen who create this colourful and interesting furniture. As each piece in the range is hand made using a unique blend of timbers, every item is truly individual. Sturdy iron legs and handles add striking features to the piece. These are solidly constructed piece of furniture and only the Iron Metal legs need to be attached to the main body. The environmentally friendly reclaimed wood is finished with a resilient satin lacquer which is hardwearing yet emphasises the beautiful colour and character in the timber.

Michelle G., Bonsoni's Head of Customer Relation says: "The growing trend is clearly towards decorating using quirky and unique finds. Home is another place where people like to be creative and to express their personalities. Meeting customer demands and choices are our first priority since inception of Bonsoni. These two ranges are just continuation of what we have been focusing on last few years."
