

FRONTDOOR COMMUNITIES

RELEASE DATE:
November 28, 2017

MEDIA CONTACT:
Mandy Holm
Denim Marketing
770-383-3360, ext. 28
Mandy@DenimMarketing.com
www.DenimMarketing.com

FrontDoor Communities Recognized at 2017 PRISM Awards
Builder honored at Charleston building industry's annual gala

CHARLESTON, S.C. — FrontDoor Communities is excited to announce it was recognized with two PRISM Awards at Charleston's annual celebration. The leading Southeast home builder took home Community of the Year for Freeman's Point, as well as Single Family Home Detached for its Daisy model home at Summers Corner.

Developed by the Charleston Home Builders Association's Sales and Marketing Council, the 29th annual PRISM Awards and Gala recognizes distinction in the field of sales, marketing, construction and the promotion of new homes. Over the years, the building awards celebration has grown to include growing market segments of the housing industry, such as remodeling, green building, development and the Associate Membership sector.

The PRISM Awards serve as the premier awards in the Charleston new home construction industry and residential real estate market. FrontDoor Communities PRISM Award wins for its accomplishments in building include:

- Community of the Year, 100 to 250 homes, Freeman's Point
- Single-Family Detached, $300,000 to $399,999 – Daisy Model at Summers Corner

Freeman's Point is located in idyllic Lowcountry at James Island, just minutes from downtown Charleston, river access to Charleston Harbor and beaches. Residents enjoy a truly waterfront lifestyle at Freeman's Point with community amenities that include a pool, community pavilion, community dock and neighborhood connectivity via waterfront greenway and trail with resting benches.

Homebuyers have the option of setting their Lowcountry-inspired home on-the-water or throughout the charming community, where weekdays feel like weekends. To learn more about Freeman's Point, call 843-406-6636 or email FreemansPoint@FrontDoorCommunities.com.

Located nearby in the heart of South Carolina's Lowcountry is Summers Corner. Inspired by nature, Summerville's newest community allows residents to connect effortlessly with the area's natural surrounding beauty. Summers Corner was designed as a community within a garden with each neighborhood featuring a park, public garden or pond as its centerpiece. Residents enjoy modern conveniences mixed with small-town charm at Summers Corner with the village center's shopping, dining and work opportunities and the Corner House's coffee, lunch, craft beer and wine selections. When it comes time to escape, hiking, biking and walking trails, lakes and woods are all nearby.

Tour the award-winning model home located at 233 Bumble Way in Summerville and open daily. For complete details regarding opportunities at Summers Corner, email SummersCorner@FrontDoorCommunities.com or call 843-352-4992.

To see the type of product and the communities FrontDoor Communities develops in Charleston, watch the latest video here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AI-B6QXu688>. Visit www.FDCCharleston.com to learn more about the builder's award-winning designs and new communities throughout the area.

About FrontDoor Communities:

With more than 35 years of experience and communities throughout Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, FrontDoor Communities is known for expertise in developing master-planned communities in high-growth locations. Awards and accomplishments of FDC team members include America's Best Builder and The National Housing Quality Award, among others for design and execution. Before forming FDC, founders Terry Russell and Mike Langella were both leaders of the Southeast's largest privately held home builder. For more information, visit www.FrontDoorCommunities.com.

#