Glue Board's anonymous reporting app dash-board makes it easy for students and parents to report bullying, threats, and other issues as well as view current school policies and available resources with the click of a button.

Incident reports quickly capture all pertinent information on situations involving bullying, cyber and other physical threats, violence, weapons, theft harassment, suicide, or substance abuse that is then sent to school administrators and teams in real-time.