H Speakers Welcomes New Speakers to the Panel

BURLINGTON – April 5, 2018 – H Speakers, the new speakers' bureau from The Massachusetts Health & Hospital Association (MHA), continues to lead the way in providing healthcare education, information, and advocacy through timely programs and securing expert speakers on the most important and relevant healthcare topics to educate, enlighten, and inspire their employees, community leaders, and board members.

Judith Bowman, President and founder of Protocol Consultants International, is the latest speaker to be added to the Massachusetts-based bureau, focusing on interpersonal communication skills and helping professionals, political leaders, and individuals within the workplace to distinguish themselves as they continue to cultivate strong business relationships.

"I am honored to be a part of H Speakers and grateful for this platform to share our Professional Presence message with professionals at all levels in the Healthcare, Hospital/Hospitality Industries to showcase the many nuances inherent in everyday business situations to help build trust and advance interpersonal relationships while at the same time lead, motivate, advance," said Ms. Bowman, who is also a published author and joins the H Speakers bureau along-side other noteworthy experts in their fields.

One of the other noteworthy experts joining H Speakers recently is David Cutler, Otto Eckstein Professor of Applied Economics at Harvard University. David is a published author and trusted adviser to many groups and companies on different topics within the healthcare industry.

"We're absolutely thrilled to have Dr. Cutler on our speaker's bureau," said Kirsten Singleton, Executive Director of H Speakers. "He has a deep understanding of the complex financial side of healthcare and he helps organizations discover and implement ways to reduce medical spending."

"Overall we're very pleased that Judith and David have joined our bureau," said Ms. Singleton. "Judith brings a level of expertise, enthusiasm, and professionalism to our already well-respected panel of speakers. Judith is a speaker that will engage your audience, teach them something new, and provide a sense of rejuvenation to your organization's communication style."

Drawing from a selection of top speakers with deep expertise on critical topics in healthcare today, H Speakers can make it easy for organizations to find their next speakers for any board retreat, leadership program, conference, or workshop. H Speakers expert presenters can teach or facilitate sessions at a specified destination, whether on-site or at a conference or retreat location. Organizations looking for space to hold an event can also contact H Speakers about the state-of-the-art MHA conference center located at its headquarters in Burlington, MA, just 20 minutes outside of Boston.

As healthcare in the United States continues its rapid transformation, one key to success will involve developing the strongest leaders and workforce. H Speakers can bring vital expertise directly to organizations, providing the best information and training possible at a fraction of the cost of sending individuals out to programs.
