MEDIA ADVISORY- FRIDAY, JUNE 22

Nearly 1,500 Adopted and Foster Youth to attend their first SF Giants game at the 4th Annual SF Giants Adoptee Night Presented by AT&T and in partnership with 23andMe

What:	Nearly 1,500 adopted and foster youth will have the chance to see their first ever SF Giants baseball game at “Adoptee Night” on Friday, June 22, at 7:15 at AT&amp;T Park. The US Women’s Olympic Hockey team sisters, Marissa Brandt, adopted as an infant from South Korea and Hannah Brandt, will be featured on the field. Many adopted and foster youth have never known what it’s like to play catch with their Dad. The experience of sharing a major league baseball game with caring foster and adoptive parents and their families as well as would-be mentors can possibly turn into a more lasting relationship for all involved. Youth and Families will receive a signature Adoptee Night Rally Towel as well as be seated together in an exclusive Adoptee Night section. For the past 6 years, Mixed Roots Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization headquartered in Los Angeles, but was established and still has a regional office in San Francisco has hosted this annual “Adoptee Night” to promote foster care and adoption issues, with the hope of recruiting foster and adoptive parents. Mixed Roots Foundation has staged similar events nationally and globally supporting post-adoption resources, including mentoring, DNA testing, and unique scholarships and grants for youth and their families.
