Amerisure Announces New Vice President of Field Claims

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich., June 25, 2018— Amerisure Insurance is pleased to announce that Becky Kenyon has returned to the company as vice president of field claims. In this position, Kenyon will serve as a liaison between Amerisure and its internal partners.

Kenyon will be responsible for the performance of all field operations, and will primarily focus on delivering exceptional value to Amerisure's Partners For Success® agencies and policyholders. She will report directly to Steve Donnelly, vice president of claims.

"We are pleased to welcome Becky back to Amerisure," said Donnelly. "Her technical skills and leadership ability, as well as her understanding of Amerisure's culture, will prove invaluable to this role."

Kenyon has over 30 years of experience in the insurance industry, most recently serving as chief claims officer for the Continental Western Group of the W.R. Berkley Corporation. Prior to that, Becky was regional vice president of claims at Amerisure, as recently as 2014. She holds a Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation, and received her bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Iowa.
