Back in Business: Divi Little Bay Proves Successful Since Reopening in May on St. Maarten
Divi Little Bay one of several Divi Resorts receiving multi-million dollar renovations and upgrades.

ST. MAARTEN — Things are looking up at Divi Little Bay Beach Resort on St. Maarten and at other resorts in the Divi family. It's been two months since the Divi Little Bay reopened and just ten months since Hurricane Irma blew through the island, causing widespread damage. Now the resort is open once again and welcoming back loyal guests, owners and members to a completely new St. Maarten experience.

“Refreshed rooms, updated restaurants and exciting new features are around every corner at the new Divi Little Bay,” said Marco Galaverna, Divi Resorts President & COO. “We’ve gotten lots of positive feedback on the changes we’ve made so far and we’re looking forward to finishing up even more later this year.”

New amenities and features open now include:

- Units refreshed from top to bottom with all new lighting, furniture, window treatments, water-saving toilets, interior paint, shower doors, faucets, crown molding, baseboards, 49” LED TVs, laptop safes, bluetooth alarm/clock/radio, interior doors and hardware, patio doors, appliances, HVAC, in-room Wi-Fi, electrical devices and panels, solar water heaters, exterior lighting and repaired roofs
- Updated Seabreeze Pool and new menus at Seabreeze Restaurant
- Fort Amsterdam Cafe (formerly Bayview Cafe) has been transformed with gourmet coffee and a new menu
- Updated Gizmo’s Bar & Grill with an extended deck and new menu, including beach service
- Newly reopened Aqua Mania water sports center
- Indulgence by the Sea Spa
- All on-site shops

- Aqua Mania water sports center
- Completely updated landscape throughout the entrance and resort
- New Adirondack chairs and cabana beds added to the beach

Other features scheduled to reopen in the fall include:

- New eatery called The Shack featuring Caribbean BBQ, Jerk, Roti and more
- Stunning new main pool, pureocean pool (formerly the Casitas Pool), which will be enlarged with a new pureocean pool bar, waterfalls and expansive pool seating area
- Expanded pureocean Restaurant and pureocean terrace
- Updated Infinity pool
- New kid's space and game room

“The resort transformation from September until now is unbelievable and our guests have definitely taken notice,” said Divi Little Bay’s General Manager Anne-Marie Brooks. “We’ve been humbled by how many positive reviews and comments we’ve received about the changes. We truly can’t wait until the entire resort is completed in the fall so guests can enjoy everything Divi Little Bay has to offer!”

Divi Little Bay isn’t the only resort with a new look. Divi Dutch Village Beach Resort on Aruba recently underwent a massive, multi-million dollar renovation, which included modernized suites, three beautifully redesigned pools, a stunning swim-up bar, a brand new check-in building and more. In addition, Divi Resorts in the progress of revamping Divi Southwinds Beach Resort on Barbados and Divi Aruba Phoenix Beach Resort on Aruba with plans to finish up those projects soon.
