Michael D. Underhill Named to Advisory Board of Prestigious Online Investment Platform – The High Net Worth Exchange

ORANGE COUNTY, CA - September 10, 2018 Elysian Capital Holdings, LLC, (ECH) today announced that its High Net Worth Exchange (HNWX), a private technology investment platform for High Net Worth investors, has named Michael D. Underhill to its Advisory Board. Underhill joins the HNWX Advisory Board with a mastery in quantitative and qualitative investment processes. He is a founder and Chief Investment Officer of Capital Innovations, LLC and a thought leader in the field of quantitative finance, investment policy and portfolio management.

“The opportunity to join the advisory board of the highly anticipated peer-to-peer network for ultra-wealthy family offices and be a part of the leading authorities on matters related to legacy wealth management is an honor and a privilege,” states Underhill.

An economist, astute investor, researcher and writer, Underhill has published extensively on international economic and finance topics and is the author of the Handbook of Infrastructure Investing. His research has been featured in leading industry trade journals including Institutional Investor Journal, Investments and Pensions Europe (IPE), Infrastructure Journal, Pensions and Investments Publications, and Investment Management Consultants Association (IMCA). Underhill is a collaborator and contributor to the CFA Institute, the premier global association for investment management professionals. Underhill has often been covered in news publications, including The Wall Street Journal, New York Times, The Financial Times and The Globe and Mail.

“The High Net Worth Exchange is an innovative financial technology platform which will cater to a community of family members, family office executives, and trusted advisors. It was founded as a way to make it easier for each member to fulfill their responsibilities to the families they serve,” explains Underhill. “By having access to like-minded professionals, members gain insights into how other families are operating, what issues they are facing, and how they achieve innovative solutions. Additionally, the planned extensive online library of articles, papers, podcasts, and videos will provide substantial information on topics of concern to enterprising families.”

“It is an honor to have Michael join the HNWX Advisory Board,” states John Harline, Chief Executive Officer of Elysian Capital Holdings, LLC. “His level of expertise and incredible perspective signals our commitment to building the future of the High Net Worth Exchange with the brightest minds and most exceptional talent.”
