The Renaissance Asheville Hotel Celebrates Completion of Renovation

Asheville, North Carolina--Officials of Windsor Capital Group (WCG), a leading national hotel owner/investor and operator, today announced that it has completed its renovation of the 278-room Renaissance Asheville Hotel. The renovation focused on meeting space, the lobby, restaurant, bar, and outdoor patio.

As part of the hotel's new design aesthetic, hotel designers focused on the restaurant, lobby, and meeting space of the hotel.

Public spaces were upgraded to offer new pre-function seating with adjustable laptop rests and convenience outlets were installed in the lounge, creating city-smart space where guests can balance business with leisure. Event and meeting spaces also received extensive refurbishments. The registration area and lobby have been upgraded with a contemporary new look creating an approachable yet modern environment from the moment guests step inside.

The hotel's substantial meeting space includes 23,000 square feet of flexible meeting and ballroom space. The hotel offers a restaurant, Writer's Bistro, serving farm-to-table offerings and open for three meals daily, along with the Lobby Lounge and the Coffee Bar. At the Coffee Bar, guests can sip and mingle or grab and go.
