Outcome-Based Performance Guarantee

As the health care industry continues the transition to value-based care, medical technology companies are looking for innovative ways to demonstrate value to all health care stakeholders. The medical technology sector can take a leading role in providing value by demonstrating accountability and guaranteeing the outcomes of their medical devices and products.

Since 2005, Leavitt Risk Partners has successfully delivered unique and innovative types of risk management solutions to the health care market. Leveraging its proprietary BLISCare methodology, Leavitt Risk Partners evaluates and quantifies the risk of medical outcomes. Through the BLISCare Outcome-Based Performance Guarantee, Leavitt Risk Partners enables medical technology companies to analyze, develop, and deploy guarantees around the performance of their products.

With the BLISCare Outcome-Based Performance Guarantee, your company can:

- Drive differentiation in the market place
- Be viewed as a value provider
- Improve patient outcomes
