Introducing
IMPERIAL BROOKLYN

in partnership with

LENOX CORPORATION

HOLIDAY 2018

The Imperial collection makes a holiday statement with modern Brooklyn edge and ornamental elements.

Combining the iridescent femininity of Mother-of-Pearl, set in lustrous matte gold and industrial black gold, for the ultimate modern-day decadence.

Pavé plays its part to add continuous sparkle.

FREIDA ROTHMAN serves jewelry for the holidays.

Post dinner party, escape on a holiday getaway with the Imperial Blue collection.

Luxuriate in the waves of the floating designs for effortless island glamour.

ABOUT FREIDA ROTHMAN, THE DESIGNER

Jewelry designer Freida Rothman finds her primary inspiration right outside the door of her headquarters in Brooklyn. From her window, the architectural skyline of New York City meets the steel and cable span of the Brooklyn Bridge; and on the streets, the youthful diversity and urban style of the women.

This contemporary edge influences her jewelry collections with its signature mixed metal looks of matte gold, silver and black rhodium.

A second generation jeweler, Freida learned the fine jewelry trade from her father and spearheaded that knowledge into her own eponymous business five years ago with phenomenal success from the start.

Today, FREIDA ROTHMAN jewelry is collected by women of all ages across America and found in the most discerning fine jewelry retailers.

“I am the FREIDA ROTHMAN
woman,” says Freida.

A busy career woman and mother, she can manage it all with fashion style and ease.

She is recognized for her layered necklaces, bracelets and stacked ring sets. Nation-wide FREIDA ROTHMAN stack parties feed the fun of collecting.

In 2016, Freida Rothman launched her signature eyewear to captivate her collectors, adding her signature jewelry accents to her high-styled, bold-faced look. 2018 was the debut of her ultra-modern and architecturally stunning handbag collection.

Freida continues to explore the depths of fashion in an unexpected way that evokes a captivating and indefinable characteristic.
