CosMedical Technologies Releases Age-Defying Skincare Starter Kit
—Bestselling Medical-Grade Anti-Aging Regimen Now Available in Travel Size.—

Davie, Florida (November 1, 2018)— CosMedical Technologies, a leading private label skincare provider worldwide, announced today the launch of their popular 3-step Age Reverse System in an all-new compact starter kit size.

Now live on the company website, the Age Reverse System Starter Kit is an accessible introduction to the original product’s clinically-proven anti-aging benefits. The lower price point will allow patients a low-risk opportunity to become acquainted with the skincare line and familiarize themselves with the regimen. With 4 weeks’ supply of product, patients will be able to see the results on their skin and choose to invest in the full-sized product system.

The dermatologist-developed system has performed well in clinical studies. After just 4 weeks of use, 87% of patients saw improvement in lines and wrinkles, while 93% noticed an improvement in skin smoothness. Designed as a complete skincare regimen, the three-piece kit includes a Chamomile Facial Cleanser, a C-Stem® anti-aging serum, and an Ultra Benefits® moisturizer.

“Our Age Reverse System has become one of our flagship products, consistently ranking as a top seller across the board,” says Gina Ciraldo Stabile, CEO of CosMedical Technologies. “It visibly improves signs of age on the skin -- wrinkles, dark spots, uneven skin tone, coarse texture -- and boosts overall luminosity. Patients get noticeable results, fast. They love it.”

The regimen includes key ingredients such as active marine peptides, brown algae extract, vitamin C, and powerful antioxidants such as Lipochroman® which is the strongest antioxidant on the market to protect from all three free radicals. Stabile states, “The products were formulated with concentrated medical-strength ingredients. They work in tandem to really replenish and rejuvenate your skin.”

The Age Reverse System Starter Kit is available to existing customers through their CosMedical Technologies account executive. New accounts may contact the CosMedical Technologies sales team to place an order or make inquiries.
