PeopleStreme and GO1.com announce Strategic Partnership

Bringing world class online training content to HR with an integrated learning solution

PeopleStreme and GO1.com are pleased to announce their new partnership aimed at combining the companies' respective expertise in Human Capital Management and Online Training Content.

The partnership will see PeopleStreme and Ascender capitalise on GO1.com's educational expertise and one-stop shop for all things training, while GO1.com will look to support its clients HCM and Payroll requirements through PeopleStreme's HCM suite and Ascender's Payroll. This will allow GO1.com users to achieve an "all-in-one" HCM, Payroll and training solution.

"We are pleased to expand our relationship with GO1. Our customers are looking for diverse content to drive fast, impactful and efficient learning. This requires a deep learning catalogue and a system to accommodate all the multiple ways of learning. GO1 is the world's largest aggregator of online training content bringing all of the world's top training providers under the same roof making them the right partner for us" — Lyle Potgieter, CEO of PeopleStreme.

"We look forward to working closely with PeopleStreme to help Australian businesses overcome the oft-complex challenges relating to the management, upskilling, engagement, health and safety of employees - all in one tightly integrated solution." — Andrew Barnes, CEO of GO1.com.

At a time where there is significant disruption taking place throughout workforces across the globe, businesses are having to deal with complexities in upskilling their workforce. This partnership is an acknowledgment of organisations increasingly looking for a holistic solution to their Learning Platform (LDS) and training content requirements to help boost employees' productivity and business profitability.

About PeopleStreme and Ascender

PeopleStreme was recently acquired by Ascender, one of Asia Pacific's leaders in human resources and payroll outsourcing. Together, the two companies specialise in the development of technology to support payroll and human resources initiatives and have over 1.5 million employees being paid using Ascender's Payroll or using PeopleStreme's HCM platforms. Their fully integrated technology include multiple payroll technologies, performance management, learning and development, eRecruitment, and onboarding. With over 1,500 global brands and listed companies across a range of different industries, Ascender and PeopleStreme have the ability to advise, consult, train and implement all components of an organisation's human resources project requirements. Their mission is to unlock the full potential of an organisation's workforce by providing intuitive cloud-based HCM and payroll software and deployment services.
