

TERIS Announces Richard Brosemer, Esq. as Senior Discovery Consultant

TERIS Welcomes Richard Brosemer, Esq. further establishing their presence in the Midwest and expanding their national footprint.

SAINT LOUIS (PRWEB) November 19, 2018

TERIS, a leading national eDiscovery provider, welcomes Richard Brosemer, Esq. as Sr. Discovery Consultant. Operating out of Saint Louis, the addition of Brosemer further establishes TERIS' national footprint and commitment to providing unparalleled professional services. Brosemer joins TERIS at the forefront of modern litigation, with his experience as both a practiced attorney and a Legal Director, he is a welcome addition to the Discovery team.

In modern litigation, corporations and legal firms need a technological advantage to manage, maneuver and extract data from large volumes of all types of documents, both electronically stored information (ESI) and paper-based materials. TERIS' eDiscovery best practices and technologies level the playing field between these two mediums, allowing you to assess cases quickly and accurately, saving time and money.

TERIS Principal, Richard Saldivar, said, "As an experienced attorney, director and successful sales executive with a rich knowledge of the legal environment, we are excited to welcome Richard to the TERIS team."

About TERIS:

TERIS, a forward thinking leader in digital forensics, eDiscovery, information governance, cyber security and litigation support. TERIS provides a streamlined suite of services which increase efficiency and lower expenditures during the litigation process. TERIS serves corporate and legal clients within the U.S. and internationally.
