Sente Mortgage Announces Branch Opening in Nashville, Tennessee

Sente Mortgage expands outside of Texas to Tennessee

AUSTIN, TX – December 4, 2018 - Sente Mortgage, an Austin-based independent mortgage bank today announced the opening of its latest office in the Nashville, Tennessee area.

Since its founding in 2007, Sente Mortgage has opened a number of locations across Texas, with this being the first location outside of Texas. With this newest opening, Sente Mortgage hopes to both expand its services to the residents of Nashville, and bring new jobs to the area, with plans to add to its team of loan originators and production support staff.

"We're very excited to open in the Nashville area," said Tom Rhodes, CEO of Sente Mortgage. "There are many parallels between Austin, where we're based, and Nashville—they're both fast-growing, dynamic cities known for their thriving music scene and the influx of young professionals contributing to the energy of the city."

Chuck Hamilton, who is the Branch Manager of the Nashville location, brings his deep mortgage industry experience and commitment to extraordinary service to the local market. "As a Mortgage Banker in the Nashville area, I am very excited to be a part of the Sente Mortgage family," says Chuck. "We are thrilled to expand and grow our footprint in Nashville and surrounding areas."

The Tennessee branch opening is the first step in Sente Mortgage's growth initiative to expand into several Southeastern states, including Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana. In addition to the Nashville branch, Sente currently operates 10 Texas-based branches, serving residents in Austin, Houston, Ft. Worth, and the surrounding areas.
