

S360:SEL

SOCIAL & EMOTIONAL LEARNING PROGRAMS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION.

There are plenty of tools out there to help students academically. But with 9 out of 10 students transferring or dropping out for non-academic reasons, the old model of student support just doesn't work anymore.

That's why we purposefully and expertly built S360:SEL, a radically new approach to student success and wellness in Higher Ed. Colleges often have a clear picture of a new student's academic preparedness, but the other stuff? Not so much.

S360:SEL is a web and mobile program designed to meet students in their digital world. Professionally developed lessons are delivered to students throughout the year, better equipping them for success.

S360 SEL teaches students how to...

- Recognize emotions in self and others
- Recognize strengths and areas of need
- Listen and communicate accurately and clearly
- Respect others and self and appreciate differences
- Set positive and realistic goals
- Work effectively in groups
