Tompkins International Identified by ALM Intelligence as a Best Logistics Consulting Firm

Vanguard Buyer Ratings Guide Rates Global Providers and Specialists including Tompkins International.

Raleigh, NC – ALM Intelligence Consulting division, previously known as Kennedy Consulting, has released its 2018 ratings of logistics consulting providers, naming Tompkins International as one of the top six leaders in the consulting industry.

ALM Intelligence describes Tompkins International, “the leaders are at the top of the market in terms of their capabilities to create client impact through their depth of expertise and ability to deploy it across a range of engagement models. They are unique in their ability to independently execute a broad array of projects across the full spectrum of client contexts. They range from providers in the top quintile in terms of depth of capability for low-complexity engagement models to those that combine above average depth of capability with the ability to deploy it across high-complexity engagement models.

Logistics consulting addresses the development and execution of best practices for managing the movement and storage of goods across the supply chain. Primary activities involve network strategy and design, and warehouse, inventory, and transportation management.”

ALM’s Vanguard research series assesses firms in terms of their relative ability to create impact for their clients. In addition to its overall rating assessments of consulting providers’ depth and breadth of capabilities and best-in-class provider designations, this series includes detailed capability evaluations for each covered provider as well as a qualitative analysis of their consulting organization, approach, and service delivery model.

“I am delighted that Tompkins International’s entire team has been recognized by such a prestigious outlet. My team and I work very hard for our clients, this recognition confirms that,” stated Jim Tompkins, CEO of Tompkins International.
