Trusted Data Solutions Marks a Second Decade Return to LegalTech Veteran Exhibitor Teams Up with Partner Globanet For a Special Event During LegalTech 2019

New York, NY – (January 29, 2018) – Trusted Data Solutions (TDS), the global leader in legacy data and voice management and transformation, will exhibit at the upcoming LegalTech New York 2019, marking the company's 19th consecutive year supporting the Legal industry with data archival expertise and innovation. Find us at the New York Hilton Midtown booth #1108 today through January 31st, as well as joint event with Globanet on January 30th 6:30 PM -9:00 PM at the nearby Warwick Hotel.

Capping a marquee year of growth in 2018 for the TrustedPartner Program, TDS welcomed Globanet to the program as a strategic alliance partner. Together, the companies mutually committed to co-market and co-brand for maximum global influence. TDS and Globanet, as well as mutual long standing partner Veritas are co-hosting an invite-only hospitality suite at the Warwick Hotel on January 30th, steps away from the Hilton Midtown where the LegalTech conference takes place. The event will bring together professionals from all walks of information management life – migration, archiving and compliance – for a night of networking and best practice sharing.

“We are honored to be once again exhibiting at the biggest networking event of the year in the legal tech space,” said Chris Clark, chief executive officer, at TDS. “As a legacy data technology provider, we have found and reconnected with so many partners at previous LegalTech shows. With the recently-introduced TrustedPartner Program, we look forward to growing deeper with existing partners like Globanet, as well as growing broader with more new partners!”

TDS will also be showcasing its industry leading portfolio of email archive migration solutions, named Evolve, as it is the most effective and trusted way to evolve legacy archives to new and improved platforms, at its LegalTech booth #1108. TDS has been a pioneer in the space since the inception of the industry – including the first ever email archive migration – and an innovator ever since. Supporting roughly 60 percent more sources and destinations than any other solution on the market, Evolve has set the industry standards for secure, defensible and compliant email archive migration.

LegalTech is the biggest industry event of the year where legal leaders go to learn about new industry trends and collaborate with different technology vendors to get business done. Bringing together legal professions from all specializations, LegalTech aims to address key challenges facing the industry and how to most effectively drive it forward.

Learn more about how TDS can help with you or your customers' data transformation initiatives at LegalTech New York booth #1108 January 29th through 31st! For more information on how to access the invite only event being hosted at the Warwick Hotel, please contact your TDS representative or send an email to marketing@trusteddata.com.

About Trusted Data Solutions
